Face
Professional beauty care

Make-up removal & cleansing

Pollution and sebum excess clog your skin's pores and tarnish your complexion. Even the best creams will have no effect on your skin if your skin is not entirely free of make-up. The most important beauty routine to preserve a clear and luminous complexion is therefore to thoroughly cleanse your skin without causing any damage to it (avoiding soaps with excessive acid pH). Once impurities are eliminated, your skin becomes refreshed, for a soft and clean feel. Your skin is now ready to take in the powerful effects of the substances contained in our creams.

Démaquillant Douceur All skin types make-up remover

Cleansing lotion, soothing and refreshing. It calms your skin and especially the area around tired eyes. This lotion prepares your skin to receive other specific care products from the GERnétic range for the face. For an even skin tone and gentle to your skin.

Glyco
Cleansing milk for the face

This smooth, refreshing make-up remover, rich in milk glycoproteins, gently eliminates all traces of make-up. Its rich composition enhances its cleansing action, bringing comfort to your skin and leaving it clean, soft and glowing.

Fibro
Tonic lotion for the face

This tonic lotion is the ideal complement to the Glyco lotion. It completes the cleansing process by removing the last traces of make-up and dead skin cells, which dull the complexion of your skin. The alcohol-free Fibro lotion includes a rich complex synergy of plants to control the pH of your skin. It purifies and revitalizes your skin giving it a bright and refreshed look.

Derma Face cleansing

For oily, irritated and acne-prone skins. This antiseptic soap with a purifying and gentle cleansing action leaves your face soft and clearer.

Peeling

With time, your skin works less efficient and requires more time to eliminate dead skin cells. Your skin complexion becomes dull and small imperfections can appear. Make-up removing skin care alone is not enough to fight against this phenomenon of asphyxiated facial skin. This is why we created gentle exfoliant scrubs that give immediate radiance by restoring your skin for a fresh and luminous complexion.

Lotion aux Acides de Fleurs

A lotion of a new generation, containing very efficient flower acids. The alpha-hydroxy acids (AHA) improve cell renewal, by inducing a pleasant peeling, very effective without irritating the skin.

At the correct concentration, alpha-hydroxy acids will:

- Improve cell renewal,
- Soften and lighten the skin
- Lift the skin
- Restore elasticity of the epidermis

Advice : Remember to put on your Melano 50 sun protection after using it during the day.

Its innovative active ingredients stimulate cellular dynamic and restore radiance by effectively eliminating dead skin cells resulting in a younger looking skin. Your skin complexion becomes more luminous and thoroughly deep-cleansed.

Rich and complete skin care

With time, the skin on your face becomes dehydrated, lacking suppleness and elasticity, while your skin complexion loses its radiance. As a result, the main principal is to provide it with the active ingredients that your skin requires. Pair your skin's specific needs with a suitable skin care product, which guarantees high performance. Take a look at the following pages to discover GERnétic skin cares. Let us introduce you to a wide range of beauty care products ensuring you to always find the right care for your own personal needs.

It is time to react now and to put your trust in us, the professionals of beauty care.

Recover the youthfulness of your face. Les parfaits are three timeless products developed and formulated to provide your skin with the best active ingredients from biotechnology.

Skin is not only a layer of protection, it is one of the body's very important functional organs. In addition to its esthetic aspects including radiance, smoothness and skin tone, recent extensive researches in dermatology and cosmetology have demonstrated the importance of the skin.

Therefore, the extracellular enzymes are essential to ensure the formation of ceramide bilayers, which provide a proper cell cohesion. In addition, phospholipases regulate cell proliferation of keratinocytes. The ceramidases, phosphatases, catalase and superoxide dismutase are involved in the skin's protection against free radical damage.

It is therefore necessary to protect the enzymatic functions of the stratum corneum. Enzymes are the biochemical wheels of cells, hence life itself.

This cream offers rich hydration with vital elements from filtrates. Youth is not only in a pleasant physical appearance, but also in a deep and positive psyche. However, when you can combine the two, beauty and morale, your chances in life are increased tenfold. Laboratoires GERnétic International have developed La Crème Jeunesse, with such an intense biological power that your skin will appreciate it to the full. A revitalization, a smoothing, a softness, a good health which will be envied by everyone.

Le Concentré Réparateur

Always seeking for the latest biotechnological discoveries in order to ensure your satisfaction, the GERnétic International laboratories have conducted countless tests on new natural and active ingredients. The repairing Concentrate by GERnétic International is a highly effective product designed to prevent, slow down and reverse the ageing process.

Professional beauty care

A firm & toned bust

The products of the GERnétic bust line are the result of many years of researches. We found the answers for all the women who are interested to keep an attractive bust, for those who want to regain firmness and muscular tone and those who feel like their breasts are under- or over developed.

Macro 2000

Balancing cream for the bust

The care and balance of the bust are linked to a good physiological function of the whole body system of a woman. We cannot separate the bust from the importance of nutrition and the digestive system, all linked to the endocrinal system and therefore linked to overall health.

This cream strengthens the support fibres of the bust, which are strongly solicited by the female cycle. Its active ingredients stimulate metabolism, cell respiration and collagen biosynthesis, thus improving the firmness and elasticity of the skin.

Seino

Tonic lotion for the bust

Composed of plants rich in tonic virtues, it revitalizes and strengthens the bust support tissues and prepares them for the application of specific beauty care creams.

A cells booster specifically for the bust tissue. Helps to balance and firm up the bust and enhances the effect of other bust care products.

The shape of your bust depends on the toning of your skin and the support of the muscles in your bust area. In fact, the bust is held by a «natural bra» a skin envelope which is determined by its height and firmness. Therefore, the elasticity of this envelope, that is constantly put to the test through pregnancy, weight loss and natural aging, needs to be looked after.

To maintain an esthetic and toned bust area and firm breasts, it is highly important to start taking care of your bust early.

The bust is particularly sensitive to this nutritional imbalance. By percutaneous adsorption of active ingredients developed from BIO-Technology, the Laboratories GERnétic International have created a technique to compensate for these deficiencies. These natural assets synergize the synthesis and metabolism of amino acids, vitamins and trace elements.

The natural active agents, developed from a new concept of bio-botanical extracts from several plants (horsetail, myrrh, ivy, etc...) and marine elements (chlorella, spirulina, etc...), are all rich in essential elements.
